(B) The monetary jurisdictions of this Court are set pursuant to R.C. 1901.17 and 1925.02.

Rule 1.04. Request for Interpreter.

(A) A party requesting a court-appointed interpreter for the party and/or a witness shall make a written request to the Court as soon as practicable before the date of the trial or hearing. The party may prevent unnecessary delay by including a request for an interpreter with any initial filing.

(B) If a victim is limited English proficient or non-English speaking, Counsel for the State of Ohio or the Victim's Advocate shall submit a written request to the Court as soon as practicable requesting a court-appointed interpreter.

(C) Absent a request for an interpreter, the Court may independently conclude that a party, witness, or victim is limited English proficient or non-English speaking. The Court may determine that the services of an interpreter are necessary to ensure meaningful participation.

(D) If the Court determines that an interpreter is required, the Court will follow the requirements set forth in Sup.R. 88 in selecting an interpreter.

(E) In a civil case, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the expenses for the interpreter shall be taxed as a part of the costs allowed to the prevailing party.

(F) In criminal cases, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, expenses for the interpreter shall be paid by the Court.

Rule 1.05. Mechanical Requirements for Documents Filed with the Court.

(A) All documents filed with the Court shall be legible, filed on paginated paper sized 8.5 inches by 11 inches, and securely bound at the top. The margin at the top of each page shall be at least one (1) inch to allow the Clerk to file-stamp and punch holes without obscuring the text of the document. The Clerk shall not, to the extent practicable, obscure text with the file-stamp.

(B) (1) The caption of any complaint shall state the name and address, if known, of each party.

(2) Subsequent documents filed in a case shall state the case number, the name of the first party plaintiff and the first party defendant. For all subsequent documents in which new parties are joined, the name and address, if known, of each new party shall be stated in the caption of the document.

(C) Every document filed in a case shall be identified by title, and shall bear the signature, name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address of the individual filing the document. (E) All documents shall be filed with any service copies or documents required by rule or law. Any copies made by the Clerk to satisfy the requirements of a rule or law shall be assessed as costs.

(F) Failure to comply with the formal requirements in these rules may be grounds for striking the non-complying documents.

(G) For good cause shown, the Clerk is authorized to waive the requirements of this rule for cases involving small claims, forcible entry and detainer, or other types of cases or proceedings in the interest of justice when the party is not represented by counsel.

(C) All motions for continuance shall include:

- (1) The time and date of the current hearing/trial;

(E) Court Action.

- (1) The filing of a motion for continuance does not continue the requested trial/hearing unless and until the Court files an entry granting the motion. Absent a signed Court Entry, the trial/hearing shall occur as scheduled.
- (2) Failure to comply with this rule may result in denial of the requested continuance.

(3) Failure to appear for a scheduled hearing in the absence of a Court entry granting a continuance may result in adverse action.

Rule 1.07. Filing Documents and Costs.

(A) Filing. Documents may only be filed by a party in a case, or by an attorney representing a party in a case, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

(D) Electronic filing.

(1) All documents, except original complaints or pleadings asserting new or additional claims for damages, may be filed with the Court by emailing the document as an attachment (in either a .pdf or .doc(x) format) to e-filing@municipalcourt.org.

(2) Documents filed by email that are received in the Clerk's Office after 4:30 p.m. shall not be file-stamped by the Clerk's office until the next business day. The time-stamp provided by any other computer system shall not alter the time of receipt or effect of this rule.

Failure to timely pay the jury deposit will constitute a waiver of jury trial, unless good cause is shown.

(F) Personal Identifying Information.

(1) To protect legitimate personal privacy interests, the filing party shall omit/redact any personal identifying information from documents filed with the Court. Sup.R. 44(H) defines personal identifiers to include social security numbers, except for the last four digits, financial account numbers (including but not limited to debit card, charge card, credit card numbers), and employer/employee identification numbers.
